MOTION TO COMPEL IMMEDIATE PYMENT OF MONEY OWED

HERE comes the Plaintiff and Debtor, Robert A. Koenig, and files this motion for the Court's consideration in the pursuit of justice, and to move the process along as per Bankruptcy regulations..

1. The Defendant has intentionally delayed justice with countless transcripts and other legal maneuvers.
2. Defendant has FAILED to inform defendants of all required information.
3. The plaintiff has suffered from this unreasonable delay, ~~including~~ the loss of his vehicle due to inability to make payments.
4. U.S. Bankruptcy regulations FORBID the delay of JUSTICE.

Wherefore for the reasons stated above, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court grant this motion to compel Defendant to fully pay $950.00 which includes the value of his personal computer ruined by Circuit City, and interest for the extraordinary delays. within fourteen days, sent to Dr. Robert Koenig, P.O. Box 41, Manchester, NH 03105.

Respectfully Submitted,

Robert A. Koenig
